

Writer's Celebration

The writers of Mrs. Starbuck's 5th grade class want to invite you to marvel at their very first published piece of writing. You will have the opportunity to listen to some spectacular narrative writing as well as enjoy refreshments and feel the excitement Writer's Workshop has created in our classroom.

We may be done with our first piece of writing but we have just begun our journey as writers...

If you are willing to donate refreshments, snacks, or your time to help set up or clean up our Celebration please contact me at jstarbuck@jocombs.k12.az.us or at 480-882-3500 ext. 1346
